Let the kids enjoy the sun and surf at Montje Beach, towards the Kaba Club

ECO-UTOPIA
Created by environmentalist and explorer Jean-Michel Cousteau, this gorgeous resort in Fiji is an environmentally-friendly destination that makes nature with history. All guests up to age 12 can access the Kaba Club, with facilities like jungle gym and cascading pool, and activities designed to educate kids on Fijian culture and nature, such as coral reef exploration. Parents are welcome to join in the fun, but if you'd prefer to lounge in a pampering spa treatment, rest assured that every child under the age of six can be assigned a designated nanny from 9am to 5pm at no extra charge. www.fiji.com

FUN FOR THE WHOLE FAMILY
A family that takes together, stays together – so say the experts at Montje Beach, the luxury group with a presence in both Hong Kong (Bakara) and Singapore (Kaba). Head down to the Kaba Club with your little ones, where they can showcase their culinary baking skills together with Montje's chefs, who bring up sweet delights like pastries, cookies and mini-sandwiches. Squeeze the time by curling up and watching a movie or playing games in the comfort of your own private villa (Montje) or executive suite (Bakara), while older kids can enjoy a spot of swimming, beach volleyball or tennis, or check out the playground and playrooms for quiet reading or a game on the PS3, Xbox or Wii. www.montjebeach.com

Enjoy the privacy of a private villa with a pool and garden

A Haven of One's Own

Kaba Kaba is home to immaculately decorated rooms, tennis court, a mini movie theatre and more

There are private Balinese villas, and then there are luxurious estates on the Indonesian island that redefine the idea of pampering relaxation. Kaba Kaba Estate falls into the latter category, and is not so much a six-star, cooler-than-thou resort where you actually have to put together an outfit to step out for dinner, but more like the perfectly-appointed home of a discerning best friend. This astounding eight-bedroom estate extends over 130,000sqft, and is staffed by a friendly and incredibly professional team—the chef happily shares a recipe for crispy tempeh and everyone seems to find joy in entertaining even the youngest of guests. There's little motivation to leave the splendor of the villa's rice terrace setting, with its private multi-pavilion design, antiques-filled interiors, fascinating art collection and no-expense-spared facilities—including four bookshelves, a tennis court, home theatre, games room, children's library, spa and gym. The only time you won't be in a state of complete bliss is when it's time to leave.
