Pure Shores Villa, Bohol

Settings don't get much lovelier than this coastal clifftop spot on the island of Bohol in the Philippines. It's all yours to admire and explore when you stay at this five-bedroom private residence, where contemporary luxury living is designed to be enjoyed in harmony with nature. Inspired by the owners' own dream honeymoon, the property boasts indoor and outdoor spaces for relaxation, play and socialising, as well as a showstopping infinity pool overlooking the Bohol Sea. Also included is a dedicated team of 20, from a private chef who will cater to the tastes of your party, to a concierge who will oversee every detail of your stay. Whether you're planning an eco-excursion, diving into a water adventure or looking to keep the little ones entertained while the grown-ups take an evening off, rest assured you'll have all the support you need.

Villa Fabrica Santorini, Santorini

Housed within a beautifully restored 19-century wine factory in a charming village on the island of Santorini, this coastal villa is ideally suited to big family vacations. Made up of four separate units, each with their own private entrance, the property allows guests to enjoy privacy and space while staying connected – you'll be able to switch seamlessly from downtime to family time. Expect the warm, thoughtful hospitality southern Europe is known for, starting with a seasonal breakfast hamper laid out for you upon arrival. Sink into premium bedding in clean, minimalist rooms, splash around with the kids in the plunge pool, and gather together on the rooftop terrace for sunset views that need to be seen to be believed. You'll find the whole family has never felt closer.
