

FRV TRAVEL – VILLA ADASA

Edition 11.6 - April 2015

Chic, cosmopolitan and contemporary, the three-bedroom Villa Adasa is cocooned within the exclusive Laksmana Estate in Seminyak's heart, a short stroll from the beach and some of Bali's most iconic restaurants and beach-bars. Families and couples will particularly appreciate the generous living space and glamorous master bedroom with sunset terrace, while the poolside bale and private roof deck provide quiet corners, and a full-time staff including a highly competent chef ensures all guests are handsomely looked after.

From the cast bronze 'males' heads adorning the handsome entrance door to the colorful batik cushions piled up on the poolside bale, Villa Adasa delivers a mega-dose of style, right down to the smallest detail. Along along (that's it) and increased shaggle and create spacious interiors with vaulted ceilings supported on Balinese stone walls soaring above floors of terrazzo and teakwood. Bringing the Bali-style influence bang up to date, Turkish rug coaxes with black and white prints from the 30s.

Furnished some stools made by side-tables made from traditional-looking glass, and the Sunset music system and Pura stone fountains harmonize their melodies.

Villa Adasa offers a choice of places for both socializing and quiet time, and the glamorous master bedroom and two guest rooms are each sanctuaries in themselves. Gather in the huge living position for a convivial meal or seafood barbecue prepared by the accomplished villa chef, retire to the double bale for a massage after a dip in the 14-metre green-slate-tiled pool, retreat to the upper deck for some sunbathing or yoga, or enjoy sunset cocktails on the second level master bedroom terrace.

As appealing as Villa Adasa's style is its serenity location. The villa is securely set in the exclusive Laksmana Estate minutes away from the Indian Ocean and the wide sandy beaches of Bali's multi-wave coast. La Luccola, Pura's Head, Nix De Ta and other iconic culinary and cocktail landmarks are just a short walk away. www.villadasa.com

VILLA ADASA

Chic, cosmopolitan and contemporary, the three bedroom Villa Adasa is cocooned within the exclusive Laksmana Estate in Seminyak's heart, a short stroll from the beach and some of Bali most iconic restaurants and beach-bars. Families and couples will particularly appreciate the generous living space and glamorous master bedroom with sunset terrace, while the poolside bale and private roof deck provide quiet corners, and a full-time staff including a highly competent chef ensures all guests are handsomely looked after.

From the cast bronze 'mudra' hands adorning the handsome entrance door to the colourful batik cushions piled up on the poolside bale, Villa Adasa delivers a mega-dose of style, right down to the smallest detail. Ajang-alang (thatch) and ironwood shingle roofs create spacious interiors with vaulted ceilings supported on Palimanan stone walls soaring above floors of terrazzo and teakwood. Bringing the Bali-style influence bang up to date, Turkish rugs contrast with black and white prints from the 30s, fossilised stone stools stand by side-tables made from traditional offering plates, and the Sonos music system and Paras stone fountains harmonise their melodies. Villa Adasa offers a choice of places for both socialising and quiet time, and the glamorous master bedroom and two guest suites are each sanctuaries in themselves. Gather in the huge living pavilion for a convivial meal or seafood barbecue prepared by the accomplished villa chef; retire to the double bale for a massage after a dip in the 14-metre green-stone-riled pool; retreat to the upper deck for some sunbathing or yoga; or enjoy sunset cocktails on the second level master bedroom terrace.

As appealing as Villa Adasa style is its sensational location. The villa is securely set in the exclusive Laksmana Estate moments away from the Indian Ocean and the wide sandy beaches of Bali's southwest coast. La Lucciola, Potato Head, Ku De Ta and other iconic culinary and cocktail landmarks are just a short walk away. www.villaadasa.com
